[REDACTED] Comment. It is realized that some of the information in the following report is dated, but it is felt that it contains background information that may be of value.

1. The Directorate of Public Security of the Democratic Republic of Vietnam (DRV) in North Vietnam will, as of 1 June 1953, divide the Directorate of Public Security of Interzone III into two separate branches, both directly responsible to the North Vietnam Directorate:
  - a. Public Security of the Right Bank<sup>1</sup> of Interzone III will include the provincial divisions of Son Tay, Ha Dong, Ha Nam, Hoa Binh, Nam Dinh, and Ninh Binh.
  - b. Public Security of the Left Bank<sup>1</sup> of Interzone III will include the provincial divisions of Hai Phong, Kien An, Hai Duong, Thai Binh, and Hung Yen.

Right Bank Branch

2. The Right Bank branch will temporarily retain the designation, "Directorate of Public Security of Interzone III", but it will have the covert name "M. Thanh Xa Libre." Its former covert name was "Dong Son Society of Interzone III." Its headquarters will be located at Xich Tho.<sup>2</sup>
3. There are four main sections under the Directorate of Public Security of Interzone III. These are the Cabinet, Administrative Office, Political Security Office and Counter-Espionage Office. Three minor sections are the Construction, Documentation and Studies Offices.<sup>3</sup>

Comments

1. "Right Bank" and "Left Bank" presumably refer to the banks of the Red River.
2. Xich Tho is located about midway between Phu Nho Quan and Chi Ne on Provincial Route 59
3. The report does not make it clear whether the Control, Documentation and Studies Offices are under the Administrative Office or directly responsible to the Directorate.
4. Comment. The Directorate of Public Security of Interzone III has created the Thanh Hoa Zone to control exchange and to control the movement of merchants coming from Thanh Hoa to buy or sell.
